Egglescliffe CE Primary School
Newsletter No. 9
April 2022

A huge thank you to you all for your amazing support, the Easter Eggstravaganza was a fabulous event and it was overwhelming to see such fabulous support. All funds raised are going towards a new 'trim trail' for the children which we hope to have installed in the Summer Term.

School Council- eggciting book characters!

School Council had a hard task in deciding winners for this year's 'Eggciting book character' competition! It was wonderful to see so much creativity!

1st prize- Florence
2nd prize- Harry and Lily
3rd prize- Milo

Ukraine

A huge heartfelt thank you to everyone who donated to support Ukraine. The bus was successful in reaching the Ukraine with the much needed resources and their return journey was filled with joy as the refugees left their home country in safety.

Attendance

We have been very pleased to see our attendance continue to be above 95%, thank you to everyone who has ensured their children are in school every day. This last week of term has certainly been a busy action-packed one!

Queen's Jubilee

Queen's Jubilee Extra Bank Holiday - 6th June 2022 school will be closed.

We are planning a whole school celebration and wondered if you had any ideas of how we could commemorate this event. If you have any suggestions, please email me directly.

Staffing

A huge welcome to Mr Moody who is joining us after Easter, he is thoroughly excited to begin his time with us at Egglescliffe CE Primary.
